Looking to make a meaningful difference in your community? March of Dimes Canada, After Stroke, is currently seeking compassionate volunteers. Volunteer roles are open to those with lived experience of stroke, either as a survivor or caregiver, bringing valuable understanding and connection to the role. Opportunities include assisting with programs, providing peer support, and helping create inclusive, supportive environments. In addition, the Stroke Community Conversations Group in St. John's offers a welcoming space for stroke survivors and their caregivers to connect, share experiences, and build support networks. The group meets on the last Tuesday of each month at the Miller Center from 6pm - 7pm. If you're interested in volunteering or joining the conversation group, reach out to Mackenzie today and help make a positive impact in someone's recovery journey. You can reach Mackenzie at (709) 853-3753 or mkirby@marchofdimes.ca.
